

Title: Corporate Engineering Manager

Reports to: Chief Operating Officer

Job Purpose:

To oversee the development and successful execution of projects and multi-disciplined teams by collaborating with both internal and external stakeholders

Key Responsibilities and Accountabilities:

- Designs, implements, and refines product development, testing, and manufacturing processes
- Manages staff and assigns tasks to engineering and technical personnel
- Leads teams in the development of new products, solutions, and processes
- Oversees project logistics and resource allocation
- Mentors and develops team members to achieve their full potential
- Strives to improve efficiency and sustainability of processes and designs and to reduce waste
- Secures the resources needed for teams to excel, including researching and proposing capital investments
- Helps to create and oversee project budgets and engages in cost management strategies
- Illustrates and explains technical information for engaging the broader TFC Team (non-technical stakeholders)
- Assures that processes meet quality and safety compliance guidelines
- Collaborates with other team leaders and departments
- Maintains high level expertise in their field or sector by attending trade shows, conferences, and other sites by increasing awareness of possibilities
- Promote personal and company image throughout the community

Requirements:

- Technical Degree and ten years of relevant experience
- AutoCAD experience and knowledge
- Extensive Project Manager Experience and/or Project Management Professional (PMP) Certification